

around town

Camden offers an eclectic array of local amenities. Thousands of visitors flock to the area every year to witness the famous Camden Market and historic Camden Lock. In recent years the standard of restaurants and bars in the area has improved dramatically catering for the large business community as well as the more "colourful" visitors.

the rotunda complex

The Rotunda Complex is situated at the junction of Oval Road and Gloucester Crescent and also fronts Jamestown Road. Camden Town (Northern Line - both Bank and Charing Cross branches) is within close proximity providing quick and easy access to both the City and the West End. The area provides a diverse array of media, corporate, design and architectural occupiers who enjoy the facilities that Camden has to offer.

The perfect place to get to the West End and the City.
